

Allscripts Electronic Health Records (EHR)

Rest easy. Our EHR is guaranteed.

If you're like many providers, you may be thinking "How do I select an EHR that will meet the Meaningful Use criteria if the rules still have not been finalized?"

Good question.

Sure, there is some uncertainty as CMS determines how to implement Meaningful Use. But you can't afford to wait if you want to earn every incentive dollar possible. You have to demonstrate Meaningful Use by 2011 and that's only a few months away.

To address this uncertainty, we are offering all clients a guarantee.

GUARANTEE Our EHR solutions will meet the Meaningful Use certification criteria. Period.

If not, we'll credit you up to 12 months of support fees. Guaranteed.

HOW CAN WE BE SO SURE?

- > First, all of our EHRs already meet the rigorous CCHIT requirements. Many believe that the Meaningful Use criteria may actually be less robust than CCHIT.
- > Second - and no other vendor can say this - we have earmarked $72 million in development dollars to make sure our products meet these and other requirements. That's more money than some EHR vendors make in an entire year.

The Time is NOW.

And now your EHR will meet Meaningful Use certification requirements.

Guaranteed.

The Time is NOW.

The Choice is Allscripts.

And your EHR will meet the Meaningful Use criteria...guaranteed.
